1 PURPOSE
1.1 This procedure establishes the process to conduct IRB post-approval monitoring (PAM).
1.2 The process begins when the list of studies due for Continuing Review is generated.
1.3 The process ends when the PAM has been completed and reported to the Northwestern University Institutional Review Board at the IRB Chairs’ Meeting.

2 PREVIOUS VERSION
2.1 Revised from previous version dated 04/02/2018.

3 POLICY
3.1 The IRB Office has the responsibility to: (1) Implement a Directed (For cause) Review program to monitor compliance and improve compliance in identified problem areas, and (2) Investigate and remediate identified systemic problem areas and, where necessary, request that the Vice President for Research remove individuals from involvement in the Human Subject Protection Program (Human Research Protection Program Plan (HRP-101).
3.2 The IRB Office and IRB investigates allegations of non-compliance in Human Subject Research and imposing corrective actions as needed. In addition to Directed Reviews conducted by the IRB Office in response to reports of alleged noncompliance, the IRB Office also conducts routine post-approval monitoring of Human Subject Research studies in order to review and ensure compliance in the conduct of Human Subject Research at the University. (Human Research Protection Program Compliance policy).

4 RESPONSIBILITIES
4.1 The IRB Office Compliance Team carries out the activities related to post-approval monitoring.
4.2 The IRB Office Compliance Team reports the post-approval monitoring activities at the IRB Chairs Meeting.

5 PROCEDURE
5.1 The Compliance Analyst will conduct a post-approval monitoring review on a 3%-5% sampling of active human subjects research studies.
5.2 The Compliance Analyst will generate a list of research studies that will be due for continuing review in three months.
5.3 The Compliance Analyst will select the appropriate number of studies (according to the sampling level) from the list.
5.3.1 Studies may be selected randomly using a random number generator.
5.3.2 Studies may be selected with input from IRB Managers.
5.3.3 The Compliance Analyst will make an effort to not select multiple studies from the same Principal Investigator within the same calendar year for PAM review.
5.3.4 The Compliance Analyst will send the proposed study selections to the IRB Managers to get feedback.
5.3.5 The Compliance Analyst will select one of the studies for a routine, in-person, PAM Visit, the remaining studies will undergo a Principal Investigator (PI) self-assessment PAM.
5.4 For each selected study, the Compliance Analyst will email the PI and Primary Contact using either the PAM Letter – Self Assessment template or the PAM Letter – Routine Visit template. This email will include:
5.4.1 Instructions for completing the PAM.
5.4.2 The appropriate checklist (HRP-429 for Biomedical research, HRP-430 for Social-Behavioral research).
5.4.3 The deadline for completing the PAM checklist (30 days from the date of the email, which can be extended by a few days to ensure the deadline not fall on a weekend.)

5.4.4 For the in-person PAM Visit, proposed dates for the visit.

5.5 For the self-assessment PAMs, the Compliance Analyst will do the following:

5.5.1 After the PI returns the completed checklist previously sent in section 5.4, the Compliance Analyst will review the responses and send queries to the PI as necessary.

5.5.2 When the checklist is completed and all queries are resolved, the Compliance Analyst will send the PI a Close-Out email.

5.5.3 Save the completed checklist, email correspondence, and Close-Out email in the corresponding electronic folder.

5.5.4 Record the PAM activity in the Compliance Tracker and report the PAM at the IRB Chairs’ Meeting.

5.6 For the in-person PAM Visit, the Compliance Analyst will do the following:

5.6.1 Schedule the visit.

5.6.2 Conduct the visit:
   5.6.2.1 Review consent forms as appropriate.
   5.6.2.2 Review participant files as appropriate.
   5.6.2.3 Review regulatory documentation as appropriate.
   5.6.2.4 Complete the appropriate checklist (HRP-429 of HRP-430) at the visit.

5.6.3 Send the PI a letter with any findings and suggestions for improvement with instructions that the PI should respond to the letter within 1-2 weeks via email. Use the template Post-Approval Monitoring Visit Letter – Findings.

5.6.4 Review the PI’s response to the PAM visit letter and send queries to the PI as necessary.

5.6.5 When the visit is complete, PI response is satisfactory, and all queries are resolved, the Compliance Analyst will send the PI a Close-Out email.

5.6.6 Save the completed checklist, email correspondence, and Close-Out email in the corresponding electronic folder.

5.6.7 Record the PAM activity in the Compliance Tracker and report the in-person PAM Visit at the IRB Chairs’ Meeting.
